We've had a mini-moth since fall that sometimes flutters about the living room with my mate trying to clap it to death. Leave it alone I tell her. It's our only pet.

SCUTTLEBUTT
Neighbors are getting increasingly irritated waiting for the traffic light change at New Britain Ave. and Valley Crest. Even the police cruisers stop on Valley Crest, then go through the long red onto New Britain Ave., only to park, watch, and ticket.
The slowing economy may have put the brakes on a teen curfew for WestFarms.
Raising town property taxes is being quietly considered behind the scenes as an offset to possible state revenue cuts.
West Hartford businesses are looking at an average unemployment tax rate hike of $470 for each employee to offset a Connecticut unemployment fund deficit.
