World NEWS

SEOUL - Former South Korean President Roh Moohyun conferred with prosecutors and defense attorneys as he was questioned in an ongoing bribery scandal.

TEHRAN - Reaction has been tepid among Iranian lawmakers to President Obama's initial overture for reaching some conciliatory agreements between the U.S. and Iran. Re-approachment with the Middle East nation has become a center point in the Obama Administration.

ROME - A palestinian responsible for the death of an American citizen in the Achille Lauro cruise ship has been released by Italian authorities after serving 23 years in prison for the crime. Youssef Magied al-Moqui had been convicted of shooting Leon Klinghoffer, an elderly resident of a New York City Jewish community.

BAKU - Twelve people were killed Thursday and others wounded by a rampaging lone gunman using an automatic pistol during an attack at the prestigious Azerbaijan State Oil Academy. Farda Gadyrov, a 29 year-old Georgian citizen, killed himself when he saw police responding to his killing spree.

ISLAMABAD - Taliban militants on the Pakistan side of the volatile Afghanistan border have been accused by Pakistan army officers of looting, destroying property and causing the death of a Pakistani soldier in the Swat Valley. The rise in tensions is severely undermining a controversial agreement brokered between the central government and Taliban leaders in which the Taliban would have autonomy in governing the northern area under its own interpretations of Muslim strictures.

KATMANDU - Nepal's prime minister fired the country's army chief on Sunday over the general's refusal to allow former rebel fighters into army ranks as required by a UN brokered peace settlement. The resulting protests by opposition parties is creating a serious schism for the government.
